ARTGUILD of the PURPLE ISLES

The goal of the Art Guild of the Purple Isles is to promote art, to sponsor educational opportunities for the development of its members' talents, to provide a means for displaying and marketing their work and to encourage new talent.

The Guild's annual Members' Judged Art Show, held every winter at the Key Largo Library, is the highlight of our year.

We also host the Joe Cella Birds in Nature Show, offer open air art shows, plein air painting, teaching videos, and a wide selection of workshops.

Please visit our website (www.artguildofthepurpleisles.com) to see all the current information on workshops, plein air, and various events.

Purple Isles helps local schools with art education and supplies and encourages competitive efforts on their part.

We are at the center of visual art activities in the Upper Keys and are committed to making art a prominent part of the community.
